Code of Ethics for Plagiarism

1. I know that plagiarism means taking and using the ideas, writings, works or inventions of another as if they were one's own. I know that plagiarism not only includes verbatim copying, but also the extensive use of another person's ideas without proper acknowledgement (which includes the proper use of quotation marks). I know that plagiarism covers this sort of use of material found in textual sources and from the internet.
2. I acknowledge and understand that plagiarism is offense.
3. I understand that my research must be accurately referenced. I have followed the rules and convention concerning referencing, citation and the use of quotation as set out in the departmental guide.
4. This project work is my own work, or my group's unique group project work. I acknowledge that copying someone else's work or part of it, is offense, and that submitting identical work to others constitutes a form of plagiarism.
5. I have neither allowed, nor I will allow in the future, anyone to copy my work with the intention of passing it off as their own work.
